Just before the deadline for the last chapter, my sister had to go to the hospital (she's fine now so you don't need to worry.) and I was seriously in a bind!! "What will happen to my manuscriiiipt?! Uwaah!!" Things like that, lol. I was the worst little sister for worrying more about my own manuscript than my sister's health. But she got out of the hospital earlier than planned so she helped me.

My big sister...

She's getting a prize for perfect attendance since the first chapter. (TOM too. Lol)
Thank you so much. Let's go eat yakiniku ♡

Congratulations for finishing the third volume of "Futari no Himitsu!" ♡ I had a lot of mementos connected to Takumi-kun (small belongings and such) so I'm attached to him the most. Therefore, he's the one I tried to draw. ←
Thanks for all your work! ☆

Q2: What are you recently happy about?

As a customary practice for ending a series, I went to a certain land of dreams in Chiba!* I was able to go there for research last year, so I was happy. The other day, I went to the Fujiko F. Fujio Museum!! It opened while the series was running, and I was thinking, all the time, so I'm glad I could go. It was super fun! I played around like a kid and I took plenty of pictures.

One day, we just suddenly ...
changed back with no warning.

and we saw...
We hurried to the facing mirrors,
that one of the mirrors...
had disappeared...

WE WENT AROUND ASKING THE TEACHERS BACK THEN,
BUT,
NO ONE KNEW WHAT HAPPENED TO THE MIRROR...

OH NO...
YESTERDAY, WE CHANGED BACK FOR A WHILE, SO MAYBE YOU...
